

ELOCUTION

Romans 10:17, 2 Timothy 4:2, & Philippians 2:3

*"So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."
— Romans 10:17*

Elocution is the art of clear and proper speaking. It focuses on voice control, correct pronunciation, and clear articulation.

Key Parts of Elocution

Pronunciation: saying the words the right way.

Articulation: making consonants and vowels crisp and distinct.

Projection: using the body and breath to carry the voice without yelling.

Pace: controlling the speed of speech and using pauses for effect.

George Whitefield (1714–1770)

He studied and practiced elocution at Oxford University, England. During his American tours in 1739–1740 he traveled from Georgia to New England, preaching outdoors to tens of thousands and uniting the colonies through a shared spiritual message of man's salvation.

He was a key figure in "The Great Awakening of America" along with Jonathan Edwards and others. Whitefield's power of speaking to thousands of people placed him alongside the men of "The Great awakening".

He traveled thousands of miles between Georgia and New England. His place in this awakening was in his ability to address large crowds with nothing more than his voice. Benjamin Franklin printed many papers which prepared the towns for his arrival.

The focus on elocution is directed to all ministers who are delivering God's good news of salvation to mankind.

Elocution

As ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, we stand today in His command to go into the world and preach the good news of salvation.

We must at all times begin our journey in prayer. We are one with Christ, and we need the empowerment of the Holy Spirit as we commit and begin.

To help in speaking out the message of eternal Life, we must develop our speech.

"So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." — Romans 10:17

Salvation comes by hearing the good news of eternal Life through Christ.

It is important to know and be empowered through the use and memorization of the Word. This is a continual process through God's Spirit , an atmosphere of Love will always form the foundation of our spiritual presentation.

"Preach the word; and stand by it zealously in season and out of season; rebuke , reprove, through all patience and teaching."

— 2 Timothy 4:2

"Do nothing through strife or vain-glory; but in humility let each regard his neighbor better than himself ."

— Philippians 2:3

"For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our saviour, Who desires all men to be saved and to return to the knowledge of the truth ."

— 1 Timothy 2:3 -4
